Women's Member-Guest Golf Bags Classic, Big Hit

First of New Annual Event

Something new, exciting and fun has just sprung from the Ridglea Golf Course—the Women's Member-Guest Golf Bags Classic! This first of what is to become an annual event was held the last of July and although there was some good golf and stiff competition, the emphasis of the whole event is placed on everyone having fun. In the fun department as well as in all other ways, this first tournament couldn't have been more successful.

Max Eubank, J. T. Luther and Perry McCord each donated $50.00 for a plaque for the Golf Bags Classic which will be used to honor this year's winners, Evelyn Watson and her partner, Bobbie Dixon, as well as the next 21 winners. Thank you, gentlemen!

We want to extend thanks to all the local merchants who were so generous with their support of the Golf Bags Classic, Raymond Gafford and his staff, Ralph Hodge, Felix Pastore and their staff. Also our appreciation to Evelyn Watson for making our "bikini" flags; Shirley Allen who wrote our poem; Pioneer American Insurance Company for the magnificent job of reproducing the poem; Jamie Brock, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Bill Brock, for making the signs and the artwork for the golf course; and Sharon Beard, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. J. E. Beard, who drew our Golf Bags Classic emblem and which was imprinted on golf towels. To all of those who helped, we are grateful.

The prizes were beautiful and plentiful—everyone got some kind of prize—and our thanks go to Icybelle Richardson and Iona Beard for the selection and securing of same. Your taste is impeccable, ladies!

Winners on No. 4 "Closest to the Hole" were, on Wednesday, Averil Hausinger, 17", and on Thursday, Margaret McIntire, 46". Sammie Keel won the Longest Drive contest on Wednesday and Millie Durkee won on Thursday. The contest for Closest to the Line was won by Jo Miller on Wednesday and Thursday's honor went to Barbara Ritz.

On the lighter side—prize wise, that is—Lou Boyd was given the "Rolling Cart" award for allowing her golf cart to roll down the hill and into the water near No. 7. Shirley Allen was given the "Lemonade" award because of her uncanny drive which landed in a pitcher of lemonade. The "Casualty" award was won, hands down, by Mary Pease. Mary narrowly missed getting hit with a golf ball, hit her ball into the golf cart almost causing injury to her partner, was thrown out of a golf cart when her partner took a curve too rapidly and while attending the Awards Party, broke the cap on a tooth on an olive pit.

The "Skit" produced, directed and performed by members of the Golf Bags Classic committee should receive Academy Awards in all categories. Never have we heard more laughter emanating from the Cocktail Lounge over the good natured quips directed at not only the performers but the audience as well. It was a priceless performance, the perfect touch to end a real fun-time, and our only wish is that more of our members could not share this whimsical bit of comedy which was so very enjoyable.

The first year is always the hardest and the ladies who deserve the greatest share for the tremendous success of the first Golf Bags Classic are Harley Manale, Quanita Clark, Peggy Biggers, Betty Brock and Marty Thurnburn.
